Research Partners
Participating organizations	For employability, this means "organizations we 'partner' with in order to conduct the research.
Research sites	The "sites" in employability are the same (for the most part). This is a chance to more fully explain some important dimension of the research. As with all these fields, if it does not apply to a particular project (or enhance) it is not required. The more specific the better...geo-coordinates>address>city.
